Mr. John A. McCone
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Langely, Virginia

Dear Mr. McCone:

(U) The support of the Central Intelligence Agency has been most beneficial in assuring the successful conduct of the first two classes of the Senior Foreign Officer Intelligence Course at this School.

(C) The third ten-week class will be in session from 23 April 1962 through 29 June 1962. This class is expected to consist of approximately twenty-eight field grade officers of the following thirteen countries: Austria, Denmark, Greece, Iran, Iraq, Italy, Jordan, Luxembourg, The Netherlands, Norway, Pakistan, Spain, and Turkey.

(U) It would be most appreciated if you would again make your speakers available to present lectures covering the subjects and scopes as indicated in the detailed letter which I have sent to Colonel Matthew Baird.

(U) We again look forward to welcoming your speakers to Fort Holabird and extend to each of them an invitation to join members of the Staff and Faculty at luncheon on the day of their respective presentations.

Sincerely yours,

LAURENCE C. BROWN
Colonel, Infantry
Assistant Commandant

In addition to the subjects and scopes, we have listed the names of your previously designated speakers, together with the proposed times and dates of presentation.

(C) In addition to guest speakers to address the students at Fort Holabird, it is requested that the students be permitted to visit your agency on Monday, 30 April 1962, for a visit similar to that authorized for Class number two. It is proposed that the visit to CIA, as in the case of Class number two, include orientations on "Strategic Intelligence" and "Elements of National Power and the Concept of National Security" which were so ably presented by [redacted]
